

Haston Library Non-Traditional Item Lending Policy

The Haston Library maintains a collection of non-traditional items (“Library of Things”) for lending to patrons in good standing. These items may have lending criteria which differ from traditional items, as determined by the Library Director and enumerated in a Lending Agreement.

Lending Criteria

1. Age restrictions: Items may be restricted to borrowers over a certain age.
2. Lending period: Items may have lending periods that differ from traditional items.
3. Renewals: Items may have renewal restrictions that differ from traditional items.
4. Liability waiver: A signed liability waiver may be required for specific items.
5. Usage and handling instructions: Items may have specific usage and/or handling instructions.
6. Repair or replacement fees: A repair or replacement fee may be charged for items that are damaged or not returned.

Lending Agreements

The Board of Trustees and the Library Director will maintain a template for a Non-Traditional Item Lending Agreement, which can be completed with the above criteria. A table of the lending terms for each item shall be kept at the circulation desk, and be available to the public. The Library Director may waive the need for a Lending Agreement at their discretion.
