

Haston Library Summer Reading Program Planning

March 21,2019

Call to Order 5pm

Present: deb Grennon, Stacie Tremblay, Sue Clark, Molly McGinty, Paula Tremblay

Agenda Presented by Molly. Also presented was that several people have expressed interest in the substitute library clerk posting.

5:07 Motion by Paula to exit meeting to enter executive session and also include Molly. Motion was seconded.

5:26 Exit from executive session. Stacie will work with Molly to update and clarify the library clerk position.

Agenda discussed.

Calender:

Backpack Theater will be at the town hall June 22, 2019 10:00am

When to hold events. Timing of events was a concern. Sue made a motion to make changes to hours of library operation as approved by Molly beginning on April 22. It was seconded.

Discussion: Paula will check if Phillip Dandurand, as part of his required community service for college, is available to redo the bookmarks and magnets to show these changes in hours of operation.

Molly will put the new hours in the next school newsletter.

Motion passed.

Ideas:

Molly had a handout of events already scheduled and other possible events. Many ideas inclusive to all ages.

Therapy dogs- Jeff will be asked if he can give any information on this.

Other presenters: Sue mentioned stilts were available from the historical society, also possibly felt animals with Carolyn Kittell. The LCCA also mentioned last year that they would like to restart the duct tape boat race at the lake.

Crossroads Program will run for 2 weeks after school gets out and has included the Haston library as part of their programming.

Reading Incentive Program- 6 weeks of reading. Sue will get a list of helpers for preschool.

Budget: Molly has applied for grants
Backback theater will cost $125-150

Requests for donations for prizes:
Paula will talk to Sue Mayo
Deb will talk to the Weldon about passes

6:09 Stacie moved to adjourn meeting and it was seconded.

Next meeting March 28,2019

Respectfully,

Paula Tremblay
